Annual Account of the Rush Town Court - Justices Kirch and Doupe submitted the availability of the Courts 2014 accounting pursuant to Town Law, 123 and the Unified Justice Court Act 2019-a.

Councilpersons McCarthy and Woolaver will perform the audit inspection of the Rush Town Justice System. A report will be submitted thereafter.

Monroe County Sheriff Department - Stolen vehicles and burglaries in surrounding towns of Zone B continue. A prostitution arrest was made in the Town of Henrietta.

VII. REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Councilperson Woolaver attended the Zoning Citizens Committee meeting where they inquired about the town's upcoming complaint form. Councilperson Woolaver will provide Attorney Pavia with the proposed changes to the code.

Supervisor Anderson stated that the complaint form is in test mode. A Town Board member will test it before it launches.

Councilperson Steiner reported that the Recreational Agricultural Citizens Committee will be providing a report to the Town Board at the February 25th meeting. They requested the use of a laptop and projector.

Supervisor Anderson stated that a laptop is not available, only an overhead projector. The Town has Time Warner cable and a television available.

Supervisor Anderson reported working with Time Warner Cable for installation and service in the Town Hall Meeting Room, Library Meeting Room and the Pavilion. The government rate for the Town Hall and Library installations are free, however, the Pavilion required underground cable at a cost.

Supervisor Anderson also reported that a sprinkler head located in the Court vestibule froze, broke and caused flood damage in the area as well as court hallway and court office and court room. Davis Ulmer will be installing a different type of shut-off in the court vestibule, library vestibule and will be replacing a sprinkler head in the Court room closet.

Supervisor Anderson and Town of Rush Emergency Coordinator Rick Tracy attended the Monroe County Emergency Management Disaster Plan meeting. The town's plan will be updated accordingly.

Town Clerk Bucci reported that (1) Town taxes collected thus far amount to $872,962; (2) IPS (Integrated Property Systems) training quote was distributed to the Town Board at the January 14th meeting - training is $480; (3) Eight letters of interest for the Energy Advisor Committee have been received. The deadline for submission is January 28, 2015.

Code Enforcement Officer Kusse had no report.

Highway Superintendent David had no report.

Town Attorney Pavia had no report.

RESOLUTION #63-2015

Supervisor Anderson added that having four members of the Town Board, the Town can operate effectively. A resignation from Supervisor Anderson will be presented to the Town Clerk, effective February 10th. Having stayed in the position through February 10th allows for the continuation of the Supervisor/Chief Financial Officer responsibilities of the Town until the next Supervisor is appointed.

X. OPEN FORUM

Supervisor Anderson opened the floor to anyone wishing to address the Town Board.

Resident Carol Barnet asked about the compound to be used on the ice rink.

Supervisor Anderson noted that a bladder is laid on the basketball concrete, exposing it to the elements and aging it. Waiting to install it until next year, will provide a longer ice rink life.

Resident Dave Sluberski asked if the rules he provided for ice skating were helpful and/or approved. Supervisor Anderson thanked Resident Sluberski for submitting the RIT rules and stated that after consulting with the town's attorneys and insurance agent, a simple set of signage of being accompanied by adults and from skating only dawn to dusk will suffice.

RUSH TOWN BOARD
January 28, 2015

Supervisor Anderson stated that this being his last Town Board meeting, he thanked the Town Board for their work and support, the town staff and employees for their great work ethic and works in keeping life simple for the community, and to the citizens of Rush for electing him one time to the Town Board and electing him twice as Supervisor.

All applauded.

XI. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to conduct, the meeting was adjourned by Supervisor Anderson at 7:25 PM and approved by common consent of all councilpersons present.

Respectively submitted,

Pamela J. Bucci
Town Clerk
