Chapter 13. Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation - Property Maintenance Code

Part 2. RENTAL PROPERTY

Article 13-1300. Short-Term Rentals

§ 13-1300. SHORT-TERM RENTALS.

§ 13-1300.1. Purpose.

The Asbury Park City Council finds and declares that the short-term rental of limited residential dwelling units within the City benefits the local community by affording owners of such units the ability to garner additional income from their real property (also referenced as "property") in order to diminish the financial burden of carrying costs and maintenance expenses related to the property, as well as providing travelers with an alternative option for accommodations in the City, thereby promoting the local travel and tourism industry, and contributing to the economic vitality of the City. Notwithstanding those benefits, the City Council also finds and declares that certain transitory uses of residential property tend to affect the residential character of the community and, if unregulated, can be injurious to the health, safety and welfare of the community.

The intended purposes of this Section are to: a) balance the rights of the owners of residential dwelling units proposed for short-term rental use and the City's business community affected by the allowance and existence of short-term rentals; b) protect the public health, safety and general welfare of individuals and the community at large; c) provide for an organized and reasonable process for the short-term rental of certain defined classifications of residential dwelling units in the City; d) monitor and provide a reasonable means for the mitigation of impacts created by such transitory uses of residential properties within the City of Asbury Park; e) preserve and protect the long-term housing market stock in the City; f) implement rationally based and reasonably tailored regulations to protect the integrity of the City's residential neighborhoods, and g) ensure that the short-term rental property inventory in the City satisfies basic property maintenance standards, in order to protect the safety of occupants and the citizens of the City.

The Asbury Park City Council has therefore determined that it shall be unlawful for any owner of any property within the geographic bounds of the City of Asbury Park, New Jersey, to rent or operate a short-term rental contrary to the procedures and regulations established in this Section, or applicable State statute.

§ 13-1300.2. Authority.

In accordance with New Jersey law, a municipality may make and enforce within its limits all ordinances and regulations not in conflict with general laws, as it may deem necessary and proper for the good government, order and protection of persons and property, and for the preservation of the public health, safety and welfare of the municipality and its inhabitants. The City of Asbury Park hereby adopts the within Ordinance in accordance with said authority.

e. The exemption and right specified in Subsection d. above, however, shall be limited and restricted only to the owner of the property that received a valid 2017 Summer Rental License, and shall not run with the land to subsequent purchasers, grantees or transferees, unless otherwise stated in Subsection g below. f. The provisions of this Section shall apply to short-term rentals as defined in § 13-1300.3 above. The following do not qualify as a privately-owned residential dwelling unit, as that term is used herein, and therefore do not need to obtain a short-term rental permit pursuant to this Section: any hotel, motel, studio hotel, rooming house, dormitory, public or private club, bed and breakfast inn, convalescent home, rest home, home for aged people, foster home, halfway house, transitional housing facility, or other similar facility operated for the care, treatment, or reintegration into society of human beings; any housing owned or controlled by an educational institution and used exclusively to house students, faculty or other employees with or without their families; any housing operated or used exclusively for religious, charitable or educational purposes; or any housing owned by a governmental agency and used to house its employees or for governmental purposes.

g. A property owner shall be able to transfer a legal short-term rental to family, an estate, etc., upon death and not lose the rights vested as per this section.

§ 13-1300.5. Short-Term Rental Permit, Permit Registration Fee/Application, and Certificate of Occupancy.

a. In addition to any land use requirement(s) set forth by the City of Asbury Park Land Use Regulations, the owner/operator of a short-term rental property shall obtain a short-term rental permit from the City of Asbury Park Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation, before renting or advertising for rent any short-term rental.

- b. No person or entity shall operate a STRP, or advertise a residential property for use as a STRP, without the owner/operator of the property first having obtained a STR permit issued by the City of Asbury Park Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation. The failure to obtain a valid STR permit prior to advertising the short-term rental property in any print, digital, or internet advertisement or web-based platform, and/or in the MLS or any realtor's property listing shall be a violation of this Section. No STR permit issued under this Section may be transferred or assigned or used by any person or entity, other than the owner to whom it is issued, or at any property location or dwelling unit other than the property for which it is issued.
- c. An owner of property intended to serve as a short-term rental property, as defined herein, or any agent acting on behalf of the owner, shall submit to the City of Asbury Park Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation, a short-term rental permit application provided by the City, along with an annual application/registration fee of $500. Said fee shall be non-refundable, including in the event that the application is denied. The fee shall also constitute the required fee for the rental Certificate of Occupancy application, referenced below.
- d. The short-term rental permit, if granted, shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance.
- e. The owner of a short-term rental property, as defined herein, or any agent acting on behalf of the owner, who intends to rent all of the property, or any permitted part thereof as a short-term rental, shall also make application to the Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation, in conjunction with the short-term rental permit application, for the issuance of a rental Certificate of Occupancy for the short-term rental property, on such forms as required by that Department.
- f. A short-term rental permit and rental Certificate of Occupancy shall be renewed on an annual basis, based upon the anniversary of the original permit issuance, by submitting to the Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation, a short-term rental permit application and rental Certificate of Occupancy application and a renewal registration fee of $100. A reinspection fee of $85 shall apply for each failed reinspection.
- g. The short-term rental permit shall expire automatically when the short-term rental property changes ownership, and a new initial application and first-time registration fee will be required in the event that the new owner intends to use the property as a short-term rental property. A new application and first-time registration fee shall also be required for any short-term rental that had its short term rental permit revoked or suspended.

§ 13-1300.6. Application Process for Short-Term Rental Permit and Inspections.

- a. Applicants for a short-term rental permit shall submit, on an annual basis, an application for a short-term rental permit to the City of Asbury Park Department of Property

 10. The owner's agreement to use his or her best efforts to assure that use of the premises by all transient occupants will not disrupt the neighborhood, and will not interfere with the rights of neighboring property owners to the quiet enjoyment of their properties; and
 11. Any other information that this Section requires a property owner to provide to the City in connection with an application for a rental certificate of occupancy. The City Manager or their designee shall have the authority to obtain additional information from the STRP owner/applicant or amend the permit application to require additional information, as necessary, to achieve the objectives of this Section.
 12. The owner's agreement to provide upon request full access to their online listing provider to affirm and validate compliance with this Section. Failure to comply with this request may result in suspension or permanent revocation of the STRP.
- b. Every application for a short-term rental permit shall require annual inspections for the STRP's compliance with the City's fire safety regulations and Property Maintenance Code. In addition, each application is subject to review to verify the STRP's eligibility for use as a short-term rental and compliance with the regulations in this section. Failure to abate any outstanding violations prior to occupancy can result in a summons.

- h. Each and every time there is a change of occupancy by transient occupants during the year when the permit is active, the STRP owner, or short-term rental property agent must provide the City with information as to the identity of all transient occupants who will be occupying the STRP, on a form to be made available by the Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation or in electronic format on the City website. The intent is that the City shall have basic identifying information of all occupants of the STRP at all times, just as required by the City in conjunction with any standard rental Certificate of Occupancy application, which information shall include the occupant's or occupants' names and ages, and the dates of the commencement and expiration of the term of each short-term rental period of the respective occupant(s).

- b. A dwelling unit shall be limited to a single short-term rental contract at a time.
- c. The owner of a STRP shall not install any advertising or identifying mechanisms, such as signage, including lawn signage, identifying the property for rent as a short-term rental property.
- d. Transient occupants of the STRP shall comply with all ordinances of the City of Asbury Park including, but not limited to those ordinances regulating noise and nuisance conduct. Failure of transient occupants to comply shall subject the transient occupants, the owner of the STRP, the Responsible Party and the Short-Term Rental Agent listed in the short term rental permit application, to the issuance of fines and/or penalties, and the possibility of the revocation or suspension of the STRP permit.
- e. The owner of a STRP shall post the following information in a prominent location within the short term rental:

- f. In the event any complaints are received by the Asbury Park Police Department or the Department of Property Improvement and Neighborhood Preservation regarding the short-term rental and/or the Transient Occupants in the STRP, and the owner of the STRP is unreachable or unresponsive, both the Responsible Party and the Short-Term Rental Agent listed in the short-term rental permit application shall have the responsibility to take any action required to properly resolve such complaints, and shall be authorized by the STRP owner to do so.
- g. While a STRP is rented, the owner, the Short-Term Rental Agent, or the Responsible Party shall be available twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week for the purpose of responding within two (2) hours to complaints regarding the condition of the STRP premises, maintenance of the STRP premises, operation of the STRP, or conduct of the guests at the STRP, or nuisance complaints from the Asbury Park Police Department or neighbors, arising by virtue of the short-term rental of the property.
- h. If the STRP is the subject of two (2) or more substantiated civil and/or criminal complaints, the City Manager or their designee may revoke the short-term rental permit issued for the property, in which case, the STRP may not be the subject of a new STRP permit application for one (1) year following the date of revocation of the permit.
- i. Failure to make application for, and to obtain the issuance of, a short-term rental permit prior to advertising the STRP in print publications or newspapers, on any internet-based booking platforms, or online, and/or in the MLS or other real estate listing of a real estate agent licensed by the NJ State Real Estate Commission, shall be equivalent to operation of the STRP without a permit, and shall constitute a violation of this Code, and will result in enforcement action and the issuance of a Summons, and shall subject the STRP owner, the Short-Term Rental Agent, and the Responsible Party to issuance of fines and/or penalties.

This STRP regulation shall supersede any conflicting provision in a private lease agreement permitting sub-leasing of the property, or any portion of the property. Violation of this Section will result in enforcement action against the tenant, the STRP owner, the Short Term Rental Agent, and the Responsible Party, and will subject all such parties to the issuance of a Summons and levying of fines and/or penalties.

- k. In the event that the City receives three (3) substantiated complaints concerning excessive vehicles belonging to the transient occupants of a STRP, the short-term rental permit for the property is subject to suspension or revocation by the City Manager or their designee. Short-term rental permit holders shall not operate under the terms of this Section during a period of suspension or revocation until such time as the period of suspension or revocation has ended, and the STRP owner is formally notified that they may resume operation. Any appeal of the City Manager's determination to suspend or revoke a short-term rental permit shall be made to the Superior Court of New Jersey.
- l. The STRP owner must be current with all tax and sewer charges assessed to the property prior to the issuance of a short-term rental permit. The STRP owner must also close any open construction permits for the property prior to the issuance of a short-term rental permit.
- m. All fines or penalties issued by the Municipal Court for the City of Asbury Park for any past code violations relating to the STRP, including penalties for failure to appear in Court, must be satisfied in full prior to the issuance of a short-term rental permit.

§ 13-1300.9. Violations and Penalties.

- a. A violation of any provision of the within section may subject the STRP owner, transient occupant(s), the short-term property rental agent, and the responsible party or their agents to fines assessed by the Court up to $2,000 per violation, per day that the violation exists.
- b. Any ordinances or parts thereof inconsistent herewith shall be amended and supplemented to conform to the provisions contained herein.
- c. If any part of this section is declared unconstitutional or illegal by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.
- d. This section shall take effect upon final passage and publication in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey, following the required twenty-day period after adoption, as set forth in N.J.S.A. 40:69A-181(b).

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED, that all other provisions of Chapter 8 of the City Code which are not referenced in this Ordinance shall remain unaffected/unchanged and remain in full force and effect.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED, that all parts and provisions of any Ordinance which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance shall be repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

In the event that any portion of this Ordinance is found to be invalid for any reason by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall be limited in its effect only to the portion of the Ordinance actually adjudged invalid and shall not be deemed to affect the operation of any other portion thereof, which shall remain in full force and effect.
