INCORPORATED VILLAGE OF BELLEROSE: LOCAL LAW # 4 OF YEAR 2023

A local law to amend Chapter 184 of the Code of Bellerose – Streets and Sidewalks, by establishing a new Section 184-11: Implementing Procedures for Handling Prior Written Notices of Defects in Village-Owned Streets and Sidewalks.

BE IT ENACTED by the Board of Trustees of the Inc. Village of Bellerose as follows:

Section 1: Short Title.

This local law shall be known and may be cited as the "Prior Written Notice of Defects Law."

Section 2: §184.1A. Purpose and Findings.

The purpose of this law is to establish a comprehensive system for receiving, logging, inspecting, and addressing defects on Village-owned streets, highways, bridges, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks.

Section 3: §184.1B. Definitions.

"Defect" refers to any condition that poses a significant safety risk or obstruction on streets, highways, bridges, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks.

"Designated Individual" refers to the Commissioner of Public Works or designee.

"age Clerk" refers to the Clerk of the Village or equivalent position.

Section 4: §184.1C. Procedures for Written Notice.

- 1. Receipt of Written Notice: All prior written notices of defects shall be submitted to the Village Clerk
- 2. Logging: The Village Clerk shall log each notice in a "Notice of Defect Log," which shall be indexed by location, description of the defect, date of receipt, and the name and address of the notifier.
- 3. Transmission of Notice: A copy of each written notice shall be forwarded by the Village Clerk to the Designated Individual for inspection and necessary action.

Section 5: §184.1D. Actions by Designated Individual.

- 1. Site Inspection: The Designated Individual shall inspect the site of the reported defect within five (5) business days.
- 2. Report: The Designated Individual shall report the result of the inspection, using written documentation and, where possible, photographs.
- 3. Remediation: The Designated Individual shall provide a plan on how and when the defect will be repaired or declare that no defect exists.
