Agenda Items – Reports:
1	Treasurer, Joe Scioscia Mr. Scioscia reported that the Borough was “ahead of last year at this point” and that there were “no red flags”.
Unfinished Business:
1	Event/Gathering Ordinance Ms. Edmondson suggested that this be a permit application rather than an event ordinance. She found a special event permit from Brookville Municipal Authority that could serve as a template.
2	Cell Tower Ordinance The Solicitor has not yet completed a review of the Baton Rouge, LA model ordinance.
New Business:
1	Mr. Scioscia noted that the codified ordinances, as published on eCode 360, does not always align with the ordinances as recorded on paper. He stated that there is a paper ordinance referencing meat packing plants. DAS Bahn responded that when General Code codifies municipal ordinances, they request that the municipality select a year as a starting point that may not cover ordinances since the municipality was incorporated. To do so would be costly and would involve codifying ordinances that have often either been updated or are no longer enforced, such as the one addressing meat packing plants. She did note that General Code is several years behind, and that Ms. Contes is getting a revised quote to codify ordinances for 2019 and 2020.
Public Contributions on Non-Agenda Items (2 minutes): None - Jennifer Slavicek, 67 S. Bryant Avenue: commented on the event ordinance. - Tony DiTullio, 525 Monroe Avenue: also commented on the event ordinance. - Sabreena Miller, 89 Sumner Avenue: commented on the event ordinance; and asked how the Borough is using social media.
