Agenda Items – Reports:
1	Treasurer, Joe Scioscia Mr. Scioscia reported that the financials “look(s) good”.
Unfinished Business:
1	Event/Gathering Ordinance The Committee once again reviewed the terms of the proposed Ordinance, section by section. Ms. Miller wished to state her concerns and opinions, and Ms. Cerminara reminded her that she was not a member of the Committee, but that her comments as an event organizer would be welcome. After much discussion, and a suggestion that Bellevue follow the lead of other municipalities who use an application to help regulate events that require street closures or municipal assets (financial and/or staff time). The DAS will forward links to Wilksburg’s 3 applications, which are used for events that require street closures, the use of public parks, and street banners.
2	Audit Update DAS Bahn provided an update regarding the status of the 2020 audit, stating that documents have been provided to the auditor, who indicated that he would have the audit to DCED by June 30.
