Members Absent:
Others In Attendance:	Cindy Bahn, DAS Joe Scioscia, Treasurer
Public Contributions on Agenda Items (5 minutes): None
Agenda Items – Reports:
1.	Treasurer, Joe Scioscia - Mr. Scioscia stated that the Borough is “in the plus, in good position or the end of the year”. - Mr. McKelvey asked about the $141,000 for the emergency demo; Ms. Bahn responded that both the BCO and Solicitor have reached out to the property owners, who have stated that they do not have the funds to reimburse the Borough, and expressed that they would be willing to donate the property to Bellevue. The Solicitor has liened the property.
Unfinished Business:
1.	Event/Gathering Ordinance Ms. Cerminara asked that this be pushed into 2023.
New Business:
1.	Employee Expense Reimbursement Form The DAS reviewed this form, which employees are asked to use to request reimbursement for work-related expenses; the form is to be submitted with the appropriate receipts.
2	Legal Advertising in 2023 and Forward - Ms. Bahn noted that the Borough has used the Post-Gazette in the past, but they are not publishing regularly due to a strike. The Trib does not have a community newspaper that serves the area; the closest is a paper serving Sewickley. - She will reach out to Representative Kinkead’s office to make them aware of this issue, and will continue to seek other places to advertise in accordance with the Sunshine Act,
Public Contributions on Non-Agenda Items (2 minutes): There was no public comment at this time.
