Agenda Items – Reports:
1	Andrew Bayne Memorial Library - Ms. Goodman was absent. - Mr. Kelly noted that there are issues with the library’s security system, which is monitored by SSA. - A carbon monoxide detector has been installed in the library. - Mr. Kelly recommended that library repairs be held off until the spring; the contractor has agreed to hold the price until then. - The Halloween parade and activities following in Bayne Park were very successful.
2	Bellevue Parks Update, Rob Arnold & Dan Barna, HRG Engineers - Mr. Kelly reported that the bathroom and picnic pavilions have been ordered. - The retaining wall on Citizen Way has been completed; the spaces need to be striped and the fence installed. - Mr. Kelly is researching costs for both a half-size and full-size basketball court. - Mr. Kelly also reported that a sidewalk to the skate park will be installed in the spring.
Unfinished Business:
1	Dowden Memorial, Lincoln Avenue at Sheridan Avenue - Ms. Denton reported that she has drawn some potential ideas for the memorial. - Pizza Hut and Dollar General owners have been identified so they can be contacted regarding a site for the memorial.
2	Pool Update Ms, Bahn reported on the second meeting with Avalon representatives regarding potential pool collaboration. The ideas that have been suggested seem as though they will benefit Avalon more than Bellevue.
New Business: None
