Public Contributions on Agenda Items (5 minutes): None
Agenda Items – Reports:
1.	Treasurer, Joe Scioscia Mr. Scioscia stated that receipts are up about half a million over last year, but he is concerned about the cost of paving.
Unfinished Business:
1.	Event/Gathering Ordinance - The DAS is suggesting the Borough adopts 3 applications – one for park use, which we already have and is being used; one for hanging banners, which we do not have and which the Borough has not been charging for; and one for street closures related to block parties, parades, 5K events, and other events. - Ms. Bahn will provide draft applications for the February Finance Committee meeting for consideration.
New Business:
1.	Auditor DAS Bahn reported that there have been issues with the Borough’s current auditor, who has been unresponsive to email and phone requests, and has been extremely disrespectful to the Borough’s Financial Services Administrator, questioning her abilities and her intelligence. She will research auditors who have experience with municipal accounting.
2	ALOM - Ms. Cerminara noted that Ms. Edmondson and Ms. Slavicek are the Borough’s representatives to ALOM, and as such, should be offered first opportunity to attend ALOM events on behalf of the Borough. - ALOM’s Legislative Dinner is 01.19.23; Ms. Edmondson, Ms. Cerminara and Ms. Bahn will attend.
Public Contributions on Non-Agenda Items (2 minutes): None
