

MINUTES
BOUND BROOK HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
Borough Hall
510 East Main St., Bound Brook NJ 08805
May 4, 2017, 7:30 p.m.

1. Roll Call –Present: Mary Swarbrick, Kevin Sullivan, Laura DiMura, Diana Manahan
Absent: Tom Harabin, Aileen Mueller, Tom Buckingham, Erika Sebens

2. Landmark Nominations forwarded to the Borough Council for finalization of Landmark designation:
Bound Brook Railroad Station – town submitted applications for NJPT grant, NJ Historic Trust Grant, and Transit Village grant. (Hector)
Brook Theater – applied for Historic Trust grant
Stone Arch Bridge

3. Assignments for Nomination Preparations for Landmark sites
Voorhees Building – Mary Swarbrick
South Main Street District – Tom Harabin
Union Avenue – Aileen Mueller, Laura DiMura
Presbyterian Church – Laura DiMura will contact William Rosner (prepared a previous nomination)
St. Joseph’s Church, 1890 building – Laura DiMura (found 125th anniversary book).
Pillar of Fire- Mary Swarbrick
Cemetery should added to the nomination list

Tom D’Amico relayed that a new survey may be conducted.

4. Bound Brook Hotel update – nothing new

5. Old Business: April 8, 2017 Battle of Bound Brook.

6. New Business: letter in support of the Brook Theater to the New Jersey Historic Trust.

7. Announcements/Other

Saturday, May 13, 2017, Spirit of the Jerseys State History Fair, Monmouth Battlefield State Park, Manalapan, www.njhistoryfair.org.

N.J. History and Historic Preservation Conference, Building a Place for History, June 8th and 9th, 2016, Seton Hall, South Orange, NJ. Website: njpreservationconference.org.

Saturday, June 17, 2017 9:00 a.m. to 3:00p.m., Middlebrook Symposium sponsored by Heritage Trail, Martinsville Community Center, 1961 Washington Valley Rd., Martinsville, NJ, $25.00 per person. Registration open.

Original research will be presented. Website:

revolutionarynj.org/first.middlebrook-symposium-research.

8. Next meeting date: June 2, 2017