CORRESPONDENCE - NONE

OLD BUSINESS

Pool discussion was tabled for the next meeting since bidders and planners never returned information that was requested.

Discussion switched to Tea Street Fields. It was suggested that we check player's benches and replace the ones that are damaged. Also, softball fields should get infield mix on them now.

Waterline from the bathrooms to the backfield should be done.

At Billian Park, Bob Flanagan said he would service the under ground water system. It was also suggested that we check the backstops at Codrington Park.

Mr. Flanagan said he would bring some quotes that would cover chemicals and cutting of all fields for 33 weeks.

NEW BUSINESS

It was reported that a sign-up for the winter basketball program took place. The coaches would like to have another to make sure every boy or girl has a chance to sign-up. The coaches would like 2 boys and 2 girls team for this season.

It was suggested that the tennis courts need some patching and resurfacing. If resurfaced, use color (NO BLACK)

Since there was no further business, Ken Giacomini made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Ron Shubick seconded the motion. Meeting was adjourned at 9:05 P.M.
