Mary commented that embarkation of Continental and French forces in 1781 departed from Trenton for Yorktown in 1781. However, no official signage of this event exists.

Rutgers and Camden have not issued any new schedules of events or conferences.

Mary has been trying to get the original deed to St. Joseph's Church but had not yet had any success.

It has been determined that Van Horn Plaza in Bound Brook was named for efforts related to horticulture.
