Bright Beauty applicant
La Casa Bronxville Applicant

1. Bright Beauty @ 102 Pondfield road

This was a discussion about signage for the Black Beauty business. The applicant submitted a request that met all building regulations. There was discussion about changing the color of the proposed sign from Black to another color, based on a DRC committee member recommendation. The applicant asked to stay with Black signage. A vote was taken on the application as submitted. The vote was unanimously approve.

No further action taken by DRC.

2. La Casa Bronxville at 7 Pondfield road

Applicant submitted plans for a new sign mounted to a plain existing wall for the business at 7 pondfield road. there were 2 applications
THE FIRST APPLICATION SIGNAGE (WHICH MET CODE) APPEARED TINY ON THE WALL. THE SECOND APPLICATION SHOWED THE SIGN SLIGHTLY LARGER. DRC was comfortable with the proposed larger lettering and colors, but noted that the use of larger lettering signage is generally prohibited under Village sign regulations. DRC voted unanimously to approve the larger letting.

DRC recommends approval of the application as submitted.
