January 18, 2021

Jackie,

Based on anticipated, significant increases from our suppliers, we'll likely have to adjust our 2020 ready-mix concrete pricing as follows:

- $6.00 more per cubic yard

It is a volatile topic and subject to change as the Spring deadline approaches. I'll do my best to alert you of any changes, positive or negative. I hope the information I've provided is sufficient. We look forward to the opportunity to serve your ready-mix, material, and placement needs. If you have any questions, please feel free to call or contact me.

Thank you,

Jackie,

I scanned and emailed a copy of the the tentative ready-mix concrete price increase for 2021. You may have to check your spam/junk mail as it was sent via our scanner/copier.

Jackie,

Sorry to be a pain. Should I scan and email, or mail the potential increase letter to you?

Patrick,

I would put down on company letterhead that there is the chance of a price increase in mid to late March and have it notarized.

That way Kurt is aware of what is going on.

I also sent him this email to give him a heads up.

Thanks,

I'm not 100% sure what it will be, and won't likely know anything definitive until mid to late-March. What do you recommend?

Patrick,

That is correct, if you have a price increase please include that to me on company letterhead so I can submit that to Kurt.

Jackie,

I see this says all terms remain the same. I assume that includes pricing? It is very unlikely given the material and operating cost increases that have or will be incurred this spring that we'll be able to hold pricing at its current rate. Please let me know if my understanding is correct. Thank you.
