  2. The Borough of Keyport shall bear the costs associated with conducting the criminal history record background checks for Borough Volunteers.
- b. Disqualification from Service. A person will be automatically disqualified from serving as a volunteer of a Borough board, commission or committee if that person refuses to submit to the mandatory criminal history background check required by this Subsection.
- c. Crime or Disorderly Person's Offense. A person will also be disqualified from serving as a volunteer of a Borough board, commission or committee if that person's criminal history background check reveals a record of conviction for any crime, disorderly person's offense or crime of moral turpitude, including but not limited to the following:
  1. Involving danger to the person, meaning those crimes and disorderly persons offenses as set forth in N.J.S.A. 2C:11-1 et seq., such as criminal homicide; N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1 et seq., such as assault, reckless endangerment, threats, stalking; N.J.S.A. 2C:13-1 et seq., such as kidnapping; N.J.S.A. 2C:14-1 et seq., such as sexual assault; or N.J.S.A. 2C:15-1 et seq., such as robbery;

- d. Conduct in any other state which, if committed in New Jersey would constitute a crime or disorderly person's offense shall be considered a disqualifying offense.
- e. Challenge of Accuracy. If the criminal history background check results in disqualification of a volunteer or applicant for any reason, such person shall be provided an opportunity to challenge the accuracy of the information contained therein. The person shall be afforded a reasonable period of time to correct their record and provide an amended record. Failure to do so within a reasonable time period shall result in disqualification.

The person shall have 30 days from the receipt of the notice of disqualification to petition the appeal committee for a review.
- g. Results Not Automatically Disqualifying. A current volunteer or applicant for volunteer position need not be automatically disqualified from serving as a volunteer on a basis of conviction disclosed in a criminal history background check if said person has affirmatively demonstrated to the appeal committee clear and convincing evidence of his or her rehabilitation. The appeal committee may consider the following factors:
1. The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted person would hold;
  2. The nature and seriousness of the offense;
  3. The circumstances under which the offense occurred;
  4. The date of the offense and if sufficient time has passed;
  5. The age of the person when the offense was committed;

  8. Any evidence of rehabilitation, including good conduct, counseling or psychiatric treatment received.
- h. The appeals committee shall limit its use of criminal history record information solely to the individual for which it was obtained, and the criminal history record information furnished shall not be disseminated to persons or organizations not authorized to receive the records for authorized purposes. This information shall be limited solely to the authorized purpose for which it was given, and it shall not be disseminated to any unauthorized person. Any person violating federal or state regulations governing access to criminal history records information may be subject to criminal and/or civil penalties.
- i. If the appeals committee determines that the disqualified person has been successfully rehabilitated, it shall enter that person's name on the list of qualified volunteers maintained by the Borough Clerk.
