Old Business:

- ACP Burlison reports the wheel chair signs has been ordered by DPW and will be placed in the near future.
- ACP Burlison reports a double yellow line can't be placed on East Lackawanna because it's not a major street, but signage could be posted alerting motorist East Lackawanna is a two way street. Motion by Linda Hanson to install two, too way signs on East Lackawanna Ave. seconded by Christine Edwards. Six in favor, one opposed stating the city already has a lot of signs. Motion forwarded to Common Council.

- Winter ban requested forwarded to the common council for approval or rejection.
- ACP Burlison reports he is still working on the education portion for the new crosswalk/sharrow markings.
- Richard Natoli reports the No Parking Sign on Mechanic and Silver is still down. ACP Burlison to follow up with DPW.
- Judi Wright requested a follow up for the Mitchell Street RxR crossing, needing work because the rails are sticking up. ACP Burlison to contact the NY, Susquehanna & Western railroad.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Judi Wright asked if anything could be done with trailers parked on Birdsall Street.
- Frank Revoir asked about the stop line on Pleasant Street at North Broad Street. being moved back to allow commercial vehicles turning west onto Pleasant Street enough room to make the turn without making motorists on Pleasant Street back up in traffic. ACP Burlison to contact NYS DOT.
