CALL TO ORDER:

The regular meeting of the Planning Commission to order at 6:00 PM.

The Planning Commission completed a training session: Transforming Tough Properties, until 7:00 PM.

The Planning Commission held a Meeting-in-a-Box session for the Chenango County 2050 Vision Plan. The commission completed some of the questions provided in the box. Local government reform was found to be an opportunity in the City of Norwich and Chenango County looking forward.

The Planning Commission was asked to review Chapter 153, Animals, of the City Code. Allowing chickens on properties meeting size requirements was discussed by the commission. Due to the ongoing property issues in the city, cleanliness, animal control, and vermin, the Planning Commission did not recommend including chickens in Chapter 153.

Downtown parking requirements were discussed. This is an ongoing concern in the B-1 district a review of the current number of parking spaces will be provided at the next meeting.

The commission recognized Harry Graves' service for many years and thanked him.

Southern Tier 8 will be hosting a transportation listening session on November 6, 2023 from 4 PM – 6 PM. The Planning Commission members will all be invited.

ADJOURNMENT:

Kyra Collier made a motion to adjourn at 8:28 PM. Adam Spence seconded. All were in favor.
