BY ALDERMAN BEHAN:

WHEREAS: Under date of April 26, 1956, the Tax Commissioner submitted to the Common Council a report in writing that he and the Chief of the Fire Department had inspected the property known as 300 East Street, owned by Louis N. and Gloria B. Gullinese, and that they found said building to be in a dangerous and unsafe condition, dangerous to the Public Health and a fire hazard, and

WHEREAS: pursuant to the provisions of the Charter of the City of Rensselaer the owners of said building were duly requested in writing to eliminate these dangerous conditions, and

WHEREAS: Subsequent to the issuance of said instructions to the aforesaid owners, said building is yet in the same hazardous condition, now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Council do and hereby does authorize and direct the Tax Commissioner to have the same demolished and removed and the cost of same charged against the property.
