Public Comment

No one present. Mayor Allaire indicates that he received a complaint/concern from a woman who believed that her son was being harassed by the police. After discussion, it was determined that it was a legitimate traffic infraction that was observed. Mayor Allaire reports that he received a compliment for the community public meeting that was well attended and well done last week.

Communication from Union

Commander's Report

Commander Sheldon indicates he has nothing major to report at this time as he is trying to catch up from being out.

Commander Lachance indicates there is one candidate in background for the Evidence Coordinator and one in background for a Police Officer. He indicates that applications are rolling in and hopefully there will be some good candidates. There are a lot with military experience and a lot of Castleton students. They have been doing ride alongs with Castleton students as well.

Mapping Update

Chief Kilcullen gives follow up to Mondays meeting. One of the stats was showing forcible rapes from 6 to 14 and this is attributed to Ryan Ashe being assigned to the Special Investigations Unit. Investigations have been ongoing outside the City and the correct coding needs to be entered. Chief Kilcullen had compared what was reported last week to what was showing for the FBI, 6 to 14. Should be 6, down 1 from the previous year.

2020 3peat percentage of call volume YTD is at 16.25% of all addresses the department has been called to. Significant resources have been dedicated to these addresses. Officer are directed to develop relationships and enhance rapport with citizens.

2020 crimes (observed code) 2014-2019 (YTD comparison through 2/28)

	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	6 yr avg.	2020
Robbery	8	0	0	2	2	0	2	1
Aggravated Assault	13	11	9	6	7	10	9	6
Burg - force	13	8	2	7	6	7	7	12
Burg - non force	14	3	3	5	2	1	5	0
Larceny shoplifting	32	17	6	23	23	21	20	8
Larceny - all other	59	49	32	23	27	19	35	24

DDACTS 2020 - Chief Kilcullen indicates that they will begin to mix up the locations for analysis. There will still be three sections for breakdown and it will include South Main St. Crashes were significant and will enforce efforts there.

Next he reports for 2020 on the map of the sectors showing the locations of aggravated assaults, burglaries, thefts, accidents, needles and overdoses. With these numbers going down, they will concentrate on traffic enforcement.

Budget Report

We are 67% through the year, 8 months and about 66.16% of the budget. right where we should be.

Chairman Sargeant asks Mayor Allaire if he anticipates if paint and signage will be provided to comply with municipal standards for signage and rules of the road. Mayor Allaire indicates that he anticipates discussion about those two issues with the Traffic Safety Committee. Discussions held. A list of eight names is being put together and will be addressed at Mondays meeting when reorganizing. Chief Kilcullen will spearhead behind that with a list of recommendations.
