COUNTY OF HUDSON, STATE OF NEW JERSEY

ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 296
OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF UNION CITY
ENTITLED "PEACE AND GOOD ORDER"

WHEREAS, the City of Union City adopted an ordinance on December 15, 2015 to prohibit the short term rentals of residential properties; and

WHEREAS, it has been determined that the fines established for this ordinance are too lenient and will not have the effect of deterring the establishment of the short term rental properties; and

WHEREAS, operations of vacation rentals, where residents of the City rent-out entire units to visitors and are not present during the visitors' stays are detrimental to the community's welfare and are prohibited by local law, because occupants of such vacation rentals, when not hosted, do not have any connections to the City community and to the residential neighborhoods in which they are visiting; and

WHEREAS, the City seeks to increase the minimum fines for violations of the ordinance to prohibit short term rental of residential properties; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Union City, County of Hudson, State of New Jersey as follows:
