RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ERIE, THAT

WHEREAS, Parental Alienation (PA) is the process, and the result, of the psychological manipulation of a child into showing unwarranted fear, disrespect or hostility towards a “targeted” parent/and or other family members.

WHEREAS, Parental Alienation involves the programming of a child to align with the “favored” parent as a means to meet their emotional and psychological needs. The narcissistic or self-centered parent will manipulatively use conditional displays of affection combined with conditional displays of hostile rejection to coerce the child into severing contact with their other parent; and

WHEREAS, The pathology of Parental Alienation represents a form of emotional and psychological domestic violence in which a narcissistic or self-centered spouse/or ex-spouse will use the child/children as a weapon to inflict emotional trauma on the other spouse for any perceived grievances and is a form of child psychological abuse calling for an appropriate child protection response; and

WHEREAS, Parental Alienation Syndrome (PAS) is an abnormal psychological condition most often observed in children affected by high conflict divorce/separation or during custody modifications and is a result of exposure to Hostile-Aggressive Parenting; and

WHEREAS, Hostile-Aggressive Parenting (HAP) is a general pattern of behavior, manipulation, actions or decision-making of a person that either directly or indirectly creates undue difficulties or interference in the relationship between a child and their other parent. HAP is not limited to parents, but can also apply to grandparents, extended family members or any other person or agency having some control or influence over the child; and

WHEREAS, Children suffering from the effects of Parental Alienation or Hostile-Aggressive Parenting should not be given the opportunity to “choose” one parent over the other by a family court judge that is not trained in psychology or by a Parental Alienation expert since the effects on a child of the loss of a parent and the relationship will cause significant immediate and long-term developmental pathology in a child; and

WHEREAS, Children should not be used as weapons or pawns to inflict emotional pain or to enjoy financial gain as an unjust enrichment for a parent or anyone in local or state government that would benefit from the conflict; and

WHEREAS, With awareness comes education and understanding that the need to end the abuse of innocent children caught in the crossfire of the people they love is the duty of all; and

WHEREAS, Children should be allowed to love both parents and to be able to receive love of both parents in return!

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Erie proclaims “Parental Alienation Awareness Day” will be observed annually, every April 25th, from this day forward.
