Greetings:

I'm currently employed at the Boys & Girls Club of Lancaster, Pa. My current position as Sr. Director of Programs, allow me to manage the overall programs for our three Clubhouses and the agency's Food service Program. I have enjoyed the pleasure of working with youth to enhance their outlook on life while collaborating with youth agencies to achieve common goals. My current supervisor, CEO, Karen Schloer would certainly attest to my abilities and commitment. I am project and task oriented, dependable and energetic, and work diligently as a team leader and team player. Some of my skills include; sound planning, communication, strong management and supervision, and working with office computer software. I enjoy working with energetic and goal-oriented people to achieve the mission of the agency. My consistent effort and positive attitude has rewarded me with promotions and increased responsibilities. These rewards are a direct result of my commitment to professional excellence and my work ethic.

I have received training within the Boys & Girls Club of America movement involving management and leadership. These trainings have increased my abilities and awareness to manage people and my skills to be an effective leader. I have recently completed and received recognition for completing the School of Management Advance Leadership Program offered by Boys and Girls Club of America.

Thank you for taking the time to review my qualifications for possible employment with your company. If you have any questions, or would like to schedule an interview, please contact me at the numbers provided.

Sincerely,

Darryl S. Waters
