Hillsborough Selected to Participate in the NJ Devils' "My Town" Series on March 8th

Special Tickets Available for the Devils vs Flyers

"Tickets are still available for the NJ Devils game on March 8th in which Hillsborough Township will participate in the New Jersey Devils' My Town Series," announced Mayor Doug Tomson.

The New Jersey Devils tested the program during the last National Hockey League Season with 5 New Jersey towns and following that successful pilot program, the program was further expanded this year.

As part of the My Town Series, there will be an Honorary Captain and a Hillsborough military hero of the game. The Hillsborough Township Police Department Color Guard will present during the pre-game festivities. Special tickets will be available for the sections reserved just for Hillsborough.

"Join us to honor Hillsborough's military hero at the Prudential Center during the Devils game," commented Mayor Tomson, during the announcement.

Tickets are already on sale and more information can be obtained by visiting Devils.nhl.com/hillsborough. Be sure to input the special code: MYTOWNHILLS when placing ticket orders.
