Hillsborough Township's 2015 Independence Day Fireworks Set for June 27th

Mayor Doug Tomson announced at Tuesday's meeting that the Hillsborough Independence Day Fireworks Celebration will be held on Saturday, June 27th.

"Each year, the Township looks forward to this great community event," stated Mayor Doug Tomson during his announcement at Tuesday's Township Committee meeting.

This year's celebration will feature:

- Fireworks
- Food tent
- Inflatable amusements available from 5 pm – 8 pm
- DJ for musical entertainment from 5 pm – 9 pm
- Recreational activities

The food tent will include local delights for purchase. Refreshments will include pizza, chicken, hamburgers, hot dogs, kettle corn and more.

The festivities begin at 5 pm at the Auten Road Intermediate School field. Shuttle busses will be available, beginning at 4:30 pm, from both the Hillsborough Middle School and Hillsborough High School parking lots.

The Hillsborough Community Assistance Network ("CAN") will be collecting non-perishable items, such as cereals, snack items and juice boxes for future distribution in the community. They will also have information about volunteer opportunities.

The rain date is Sunday, June 28<sup>h</sup>.
