Hillsborough Township to Participate in the NJ Devils’ “My Town” Series on December 11th

- Hillsborough High School Marching Band to Perform on Concourse
- Special Tickets to be Available for the Devils vs Detroit Red Wings

“Hillsborough Township is participating in the New Jersey Devils’ ‘My Town’ Series on December 11th during a Devils game against the Detroit Red Wings,” stated Mayor Doug Tomson.

“This is the second time this year that Hillsborough will be featured as part of the ‘My Town’ Series during a National Hockey League game,” said Mayor Tomson.

In March of 2015, the Township was featured during a game complete with a highlight video showcasing the Township, the Township’s Police Honor Guard presented the colors and Hillsborough’s Hometown Hero for the game, Veteran and Purple Heart Recipient Ted Dima received an extraordinary standing ovation.

The ‘My Town Series’ Program, in its second year, highlights New Jersey Towns during National Hockey League Games played at the Prudential Center in Newark. The New Jersey Devils tested the program during the 2013-14 National Hockey League Season with 5 New Jersey towns as part of their pilot program. The success of that pilot program has led to the continuation this season.

“For the December 11th game, the Hillsborough High School Marching Band will be performing on the main concourse and after the game, everyone from Hillsborough is invited onto the ice for a group photo,” added the Mayor.

Special ticket pricing is available at NewJerseyDevils.com/Hillsborough. The promo code is MYTOWNHILLS.

“Looking forward to another great turnout and a fun community event at the December 11th New Jersey Devils Game,” concluded the Mayor.
