Mozgai Sworn in as Police Captain for Hillsborough Township

Twenty-four Year Veteran of the Force Promoted to fill Vacancy

Hillsborough Township Committee acted at Tuesday's Township Committee meeting to fill the vacancy in the position of Police Captain, by promoting Lieutenant Fran Mozgai.

"As we continue to ensure the strength of our force, it is our honor to promote Lieutenant Mozgai to the position of Police Captain," stated Mayor Frank DelCore.

During the swearing in ceremony, Mayor DelCore noted that "it is a testament to our Township and the caliber of our Police Department to be promoting a 24 year veteran of the force to this position."

The vacancy was created by the retirement of long time Police Captain Paul Merkler late last year.

Mozgai, who was accompanied by his father, a retired North Brunswick Police Lieutenant himself was also joined by his wife Stefanie, and their daughters Jessica and Emily for the ceremony.

Mozgai joined the Hillsborough Police Department 24 years ago, almost to the day, on January 13, 1992 as a Police Officer. He was appointed to Corporal in 2000, Sergeant in 2002 and Lieutenant in 2006.

“Captain Mozgai exemplifies the high standards of our Police Department through his continued professionalism and leadership qualities, which will continue to serve him well in his new position and also will benefit our community,” concluded Mayor Frank DelCore.
