

The Hillsborough Millstone Municipal Alliance will be updating their web page to include various resources. The Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration has resources that can help address some of the toughest mental health and substance use challenges, including suicide prevention, bullying prevention, behavioral health following a disaster, and underage drinking prevention. You can get connect with their free mobile apps by searching SAMHSA at the app store.

<http://www.store.samhsa.gov/apps/>