Four Police Officers Promoted to Sergeant in Hillsborough

Veteran Officers Sworn in to Fill Vacancies

The Hillsborough Township Committee promoted four police officers from the Department to the position of Sergeant at Tuesday's Township Committee meeting.

"We have seen a lot of movement within our Police Department as of late, and we are fortunate to have the depth of experience within the Department for these promotions," stated Mayor Frank DelCore prior to the swearing in ceremony.

Corporal David Fisher joined the Hillsborough Police Department 23 years ago and spent his first few years in the Patrol Division. He then moved to the Investigative Division for 2 years and then moved back into Patrol, where he is currently serving.

Detective Corporal Richard Evans joined the Hillsborough Police Department 20 years ago and also spent his first few years in the Patrol Division. He moved to the Investigative Division and was the School Resource Officer from 1999-2002. He then went back to Patrol for 5 years then moved to the Investigative Division where he is currently serving in the Juvenile Investigative Division.

Officer John Carney joined the Hillsborough Police Department 19 years ago in the Patrol Division. He moved to the Services Division for nearly 5 years then to the Investigative Division and back to Patrol, where he is currently serving.

Corporal Frederick Wacker joined the Hillsborough Police Department 18 years ago also in the Patrol Division. He moved into the Services Division in the Traffic Bureau and after 5 years there went back to Patrol briefly. He currently is serving in the Traffic Bureau within the Services Division.

“We have 80 years with of experience that we are promoting this evening,” commented Mayor Frank DelCore during the swearing in ceremony.

“It is with honor that we elevate these dedicated Officers to the position of Sergeant,” concluded Mayor DelCore.

All of the Officers were joined by their families, Chief of Police Powell, Committeewoman and Liaison to Public Safety Gloria McCauley and Committeeman and Liaison to Public Safety Greg Burchette for the swearing in and pinning ceremony.
