

Dr. Laurene Wolf Selected As One Of Somerset County's "Outstanding Women"

At the April 26th Township Committee Meeting, the Mayor and Township Committee of the Township of Hillsborough joined the Somerset County Commission on the Status of Women in saluting Dr. Laurene Wolf, an orthodontist in Hillsborough, for being honored with the "Medicine" award at the Annual Outstanding Women in Somerset County awards dinner.

Dr. Wolf, after graduating from the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine as valedictorian of her class, opened her practice in Hillsborough in 1998. Dr. Wolf also serves as an orthodontic advisor to the Somerset component of the Seattle Study Club.

In 2008, Dr. Wolf established Giving Smiles Foundation, a non-profit organization that supports local communities. The Giving Smiles essay contest encourages local children to write about community service they were personally involved in with donations being made to charities of the winner's choice. The Giving Smiles Foundation also awarded scholarships for high school students and donated money to the local charity Steps Together.

Mayor and Township Committee thank Dr. Laurene Wolf for her many contributions to the community.
