

Premiere Dance Hillsborough raises over $8,000 for Embrace Kids Foundation with 2nd Annual Dance Marathon

At a recent Township Committee Meeting Premiere Dance of Hillsborough was honored with a proclamation for raising over $8,000 for the Embrace Kids Foundation, an organization created to assist families with children stricken by cancer and other serious diseases.

Andrea Wolkofsky, whose daughter Ella, 11, attends PDH, and whose husband, Matt, is on the foundation's board, organized the the second annual Dance FTK (for the kids) Dance Marathon. Participants, ranging in age from 5 to 16, danced for four hours. The event was even more successful than anticipated and more than doubled their efforts from the previous year.

Premiere Dance Hillsborough is led by Michelle Cunningham and Corinna Ahart, and their assistants Lisa Burton and Ally Nagy, and is owned by Gregg Wilke.
