

Township Honors Betty York on Her Retirement

Betty York, Records Secretary with the Hillsborough Township Police Department, was honored with a proclamation upon her retirement after thirty seven years of dedicated service.

Betty began her full time career as Secretary on May 14, 1979 for the Hillsborough Township Police Department, when it was located on East Mountain Road. In 1990 when Police Headquarters was moved from East Mountain Road to it's current location Betty was assigned to the Records Bureau. Betty remained as Secretary in the Records Bureau until her retirement, also overseeing civilian volunteers in the Records Department.

Throughout her career, Betty worked under five different chiefs: Chief Donald Dowches, Chief Henry Genzel, Chief Robert Gazaway, Chief Paul Kaminsky and current Chief Darren Powell. Ms. York received recognition from various citizens for her help in obtaining records as well as a Letter of Appreciation from Chief Kaminsky for her help during Hurricane Irene in 2011. Betty has served the Township of Hillsborough and its' residents with passion and selflessness throughout her career.
