

Hillsborough Township Police Department was Host Agency for Annual Blue Mass

On October 12, 2016 the Diocese of Metuchen celebrated its 15th Annual Blue Mass. Hillsborough Township Police Department was the host agency for this year's annual Mass. The Blue Mass is the Diocese's way of thanking law enforcement personnel for their service and sacrifice in protecting the lives of the people who live and work within the Diocese, which includes Middlesex, Hunterdon, Somerset and Warren counties. Those members of the Hillsborough Police Department who participated in the mass included Lt. Charles Boyle, Lt. Michael Fitzpatrick and Chief Darren Powell as readers. The liturgy assistants were Officers Dennis Rivera, Carly Valentino and Richard Yock. The gift bearers were Officer Joseph Paschall and Corporal Mark Szymanski. The ushers were Lt. Mark Besser, Sergeant Richard Evans, Sergeant Michael McMann and Sergeant Fred Wacker. The honor guard led by Officers Ted Lewis, David Brown, Christopher Kennedy and Patrick Murphy.

Pictured above: Committeewoman Gloria McCauley, Township Administrator Anthony Ferrera with Police Chief Darren Powell and the Hillsborough Township Police Department.