

Township Employees Complete CERT Training Program

Pictured: Mary Decker, Cathy Faerber, CJ Faerber, Mayor Frank DeCore, EMS Chief David Gwin, Lori Voorhees, and Pamela Borek

CERT educates individuals about disaster preparedness for hazards that may impact their area and trains them in basic disaster response skills such as: fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations.

Township employees participated in an extensive training program over the last several months culminating in a ceremony at a Township Committee meeting in which the participants received their completion certificates and their official CERT supplies.