At a the February 28th Township Committee Meeting, Christina Simons was presented with a proclamation for receiving the honor of being named Hillsborough Middle School Teacher of the Year for 2017. Mrs. Simons creativity, passion and dedication make her a hero to both her students and colleagues.

Mrs. Simons, a Literacy Teacher on Team 8B at Hillsborough Middle School, has been a member of the Hillsborough School District faculty since 2002. Among her many accomplishments, in 2006, Mrs. Simons established Hillsborough Middle School's "ShakesPeer" Society, a program in which students perform the works of William Shakespeare, and has continued to direct this program for the past 10 years.

Hillsborough Middle School is proud to have Mrs. Simons as their Teacher of the Year.
