Hillsborough Township to Host Annual Senior Olympics Wednesday, September 26th @ AVM Park (Rain date September 28th)

“Save the date, Hillsborough Township will host the 5th Annual Senior Olympics on September 26th,” announced Doug Tomson, Deputy Mayor and Township Committee Liaison to Recreation and Social Services.

The Hillsborough Township Senior Olympics will be held on Wednesday, September 26th, with a rain date of Friday, September 28th, at the Ann Van Middlesworth Park. The Olympics will commence from 9am until 1:30pm with check-in beginning at 8:30 am.

“This Township sponsored event is open to all Hillsborough Senior Citizens of all fitness levels, so we look forward to seeing you there,” added Deputy Mayor Tomson.

The day's events include; bean bag toss, golf, ladder ball, hoops, frisbee, bocce ball, horseshoes and more. Medals will be awarded to the winners of the various competitions.

In addition to all of the activities, New Jersey's 4-time Track and Field Olympian, Joetta Clark Diggs, will be a speaker at the event.

Lunch will be provided by Foothill Acres Rehabilitation & Nursing Center. Pre-registration to participate in the Olympics is required. Seniors are invited to contact Social Services at 908-369-3880 to register for this fun filled day.
