Hillsborough Business Association's Fall Networking Event Set for Tuesday, October 16th at 6 pm To Be Held at Camp DeWitt

Hillsborough Township Business Association will hold the next Business Social on Tuesday, October 16th from 6 pm until 9 pm at Camp DeWitt, announced liaison to the Economic Business Development Liaison, Committeeman Shawn Lipani at Tuesday's Township Committee meeting. "We are excited to have this event at the newly renovated Camp DeWitt Conference Center," said Committeeman Lipani.

The theme of the event is "Laugh out Loud and Uncover New Opportunities to Enhance your Business". John "Gemini" Lombardi, a Borgata Casino Headliner will entertain guests with the "Art of Laughter" and Catherine DeBerry from Somerset County Library System will share new opportunities including ways to enhance your business, as well as access to $85,000 worth of business resources available through the Library System.

Online registration is required as there will be no onsite registration. Tickets can be purchased at www.hillsboroughbusiness.org. The ticket price of $15.50 includes food by Catered Affair. A cash bar will be available.

"These events are critical for our business community," commented Committeeman Frank DelCore, Liaison to the Business Advocate. These type of events allow for networking among Hillsborough businesses as well as an opportunity for the business community to further network with Township Officials. It was the result of events such as this that the Business Roundtable Summit was held last year.

About the Hillsborough Business Association: The Hillsborough Business Association (HBA) is a Hillsborough Township Initiative to support local businesses with promotion and development programs. The HBA is administered by the Office of the Business Advocate.
