Hillsborough Cultural Arts Commission to Host 9th Annual Art Exhibit – April 25-27th

The Hillsborough Township Cultural Arts Commission proudly announces the 9th Annual Art Show and Exhibit at the Peter J. Biondi Municipal Complex. The show will be open to the public on Friday, April 26, 2013, at 7 p.m. As many as 300 pieces of art are expected to be on display.

Prizes totaling $4,500.00 will be awarded in the various categories of High School Fine Art, High School Photography, Adult Fine Art and Adult Photography. Artwork and photography will be judged by a group of world class professional artisans working in a number of disciplines. The Art Festival is accepting both High School and Adult work from all Somerset County residents and those who study at schools within the County.

The Hillsborough Township Public Art Collection, supported by the Cultural Arts Commission, will unveil its newest edition. Cultural Art Commission Chair, Kevin Murphy painted and donated the first painting in the Collection, which is a portrait of the Late Assemblyman Peter J. Biondi. Each year the student grand prize winner earns the opportunity to work with Mr. Murphy to create the next portrait of a notable Hillsborough resident to be unveiled at the exhibit and added to the Township's Collection.

“This Art Show is an excellent opportunity for Hillsborough residents to enjoy and admire the work of the very talented local artists. We are particularly excited to see the latest addition to the Township's Public Art Collection,” stated Committeewoman Gloria McCauley, Liaison to the Cultural Arts Commission.

For more information, please visit the Township website later this month. Online registration will also be available shortly and the deadline to register will be April 23rd, if you have further questions, please contact Cultural Arts Commission Chair, Kevin Murphy at 201-240-9157.
