Township Recognizes Three Hillsborough Outstanding Women Proclamations Given to Somerset County's Outstanding Women of the Year

The Commission on the Status of Women recently named Dianne Leoni, Viktoria Wargo and Donna York, all Hillsborough residents, Outstanding Women of the Year in various categories. These awards are presented annually in celebration of Women's History Month in March; all honorees are women who reside or work in Somerset County.

Dianne Leoni is receiving the "Entrepreneur Award", Viktoria Wargo is receiving the "Education Award", and Donna York is receiving the "Hometown Hero Award". They will receive their honors from the County at the 21st Annual Outstanding Women in Somerset County awards dinner, on Friday, March 22nd.

All three award recipients attended a Township Committee meeting in which Mayor Frank DelCore presented them with Proclamations, honoring their achievement.

"We are honored to present these proclamations this evening to these Outstanding Women", stated Mayor Frank DelCore as he read their proclamations. "They join the distinguished list of Women from Hillsborough who have earned this recognition", concluded the Mayor.
