Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno Set as Keynote Speaker for 20th EBDC Networking Social

Hillsborough Township Mayor Frank DelCore and the Hillsborough Economic and Business Development Commission will be hosting the 20th Networking Social on October 17, 2013 at Duke Farms. Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno will be the keynote speaker for the event, which is set to begin at 5:30pm in the Coach Barn, which can be accessed off Dukes Parkway East.

“As always, we are honored in Hillsborough to have Lt. Governor Guadagno take time out of her busy schedule to participate in our events,” commented Mayor Frank DelCore.

“By her attendance at this social, it further solidifies our commitment and that of the State of New Jersey to our business community,” added the Mayor.

Mayor Frank DelCore will open the event and update the business community on process improvements to further enhance their experience in Hillsborough.

The Lt. Governor Guadagno’s address will highlight the Christie Administration’s efforts to recruit and retain businesses in the State of New Jersey along with the critical resources put in place for small businesses.

Michael Catania, Executive Director of Duke Farms will provide an overview of the facility, a history of the property and share future plans of the organization.

“It is our honor to host this event at Duke Farms, as Hillsborough Township is a key partner for us. We are also delighted to welcome Lt. Governor Kim Guadagno as the keynote speaker for this important gathering,” added Michael Catania.

Additional communication to the Hillsborough Business Community will be via the EBDC Newsletter. Information regarding registration will be available early September, as seating is limited and by registration only.

The EBDC Networking Socials provide the business community an opportunity to network with other Hillsborough based businesses. Each event draws approximately 200 attendees, who are given the opportunity to meet with both the Elected Officials as well as Municipal Departments. Guest speakers present business relevant topics as well, such as grant applications, labor and workforce management.
