Annual Menorah Lighting Set for Sunday, December 1st & Annual Christmas Tree Lighting Set for December 6th

“The Chabad Center for Jewish Life will once again sponsor the Annual Menorah Lighting at the Municipal Complex on Sunday, December 1st,” stated Mayor Frank DelCore at Tuesday’s Township Committee Meeting.

The event will include the lighting of the giant outdoor Menorah, hot latkes, chocolate gelt, Chanukah activities and crafts.

For more information or to RSVP, residents are encouraged to contact Rabbi Shmaya Krinsky at chabad@myjewishcenter.org or visit their website at www.myjewishcenter.org.

“The Annual Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony is set to be held on Friday, December 6th”, also stated Mayor Frank DelCore, at the Hillsborough Township Municipal Complex.

The event will feature the anticipated arrival of Santa, a petting zoo and many other festive activities.

More information for both events will be released soon via the Township website and also in the Friday eNewsletter.

“Admission to the Christmas Tree Lighting event is free and all residents are invited”, added the Mayor.
