Meeting Minutes

August 7, 1996

Minutes of the July 10, 1996 meeting

- Motion by Paul Kendall, seconded by Jean Brunea to approve the minutes as submitted.

Treasurer's Reports

Friends of Broadway

- Duane Redlinski reported that as of 6/9/96 the balance was $1,147.09. After paying for the T-shirts and Post Office box and depositing T-shirt sales money, the current balance is $654.09
- The new Friends of Broadway Post Office Box number is 546.

Historic District

- No report given (Gina on vacation).

Old Business

Broadway Project

- No new official updates. Letter from Chris Brunea regarding the legalities of the D.O.T. process.

T-Shirts

- Bill Harnack did order new T-shirts stating F.O.B.'s opposition to the widening. He ordered 25 more at the XXL size and 50 more at the XL. These shirts were delivered today and it was decided to put these shirts at different locations to sell. Duane will monitor the sale of these T-shirts. The cost of these shirts will now be $6.00 each or two for $10.00.

Signs

- "Stop the Widening " signs were returned to Jim from Mayor Cansdale. Jim will have the supply of signs that we have left and if anybody wants one they can contact him.

Handy Mobil

- After speaking with the Mayor, the bushes are there to replace the trees.

Marino-5600 Broadway

- Ms. Marino still wants to put a Tea Room in at that location, she probably will not be doing anything until the fall.

New Business

- Town of Lancaster is talking about possibly expanding the Town Hall to house the building dept. which has moved onto W. Main St. and other Town offices. This will be discussed at our next meeting.

Correspondence

- Jim announced a Cultural Resource seminar and has the information.
- Jim also reported a letter from Lucy Breyer about CLG members, grants and brochures. Her letter will be filed for anyone wanting to reference it.

Upcoming Meetings

- Wednesday, September 11, 1996-7:30 P.M. -Municipal Building
- Wednesday, October 2, 1996-7:30 P.M. -Municipal Building

Respectfully submitted,

Gina Bolender
Secretary
