HISTORIC DISTRICT

HEARINGS

-Jeff Smith 23 Church St.

Mr. Smith had a hearing with us earlier this year. He would like to change some things that were previously approved. Motion by Ed Mikula, seconded by Jean Brunea to approve a new six-panel, solid, white exterior door and a open one-pane screen door. Motion approved.

-Lynn Scritchfield 10 Clark St.

Ms. Scritchfield would like to replace 12 windows. Motion by Bill Harnack, seconded by Judy Michaels to approve the replacement windows as presented. Motion passed.

-Denise Drushler 5483 Broadway

Ms. Drushler has many improvements she would like to do. SHPO has been contacted in regards to their recommendations. 1.) Front and rear entrance doors to be repaired, repair and/or replace existing brick as needed, repair cornice and erect handrail at front steps. See C.O.A. for specifics. Mr. Keysa will contact SHPO on some of the questions about the brick work. Mr. Keysa and board approved repairs on doors and siding at this time but the other work is to be held up until SHPO can be contacted. Mr. Keysa will contact Ms. Druchler after speaking to SHPO.

Minutes of the Sept. 1, 1993 meeting

- Motion by Ms. Judy Michaels, seconded by Dr. Paul Kendall to approve these minutes as submitted. Motion passed.

The Bethany Home will be sending some residents to go on the with us. The newspapers will be notified.

SPEAKERS

- The following people spoke and all expressed opposition to the widening:
Nick LoCicero Candidate for Lancaster Town Supervisor
Lucian Greco Lancaster Town Supervisor
Johanna Coleman Lancaster Town Receiver of Taxes
Don Kwak Lancaster Town Councilman
Judy Michaels Depew Trustee
Bob Giza Lancaster Town Councilman
Dale Larson Erie County Legislator

All the above speeches are on cassette tape and will be kept for future reference. Some of the speakers also submitted written statements for our records.

Resignation Letters from Judy Michaels

-Ms. Judy Michaels submitted two resignation letters. In light of the fact that she has been appointed to the Depew Village Board, Ms. Michaels feels she must resign as a Historic District Board member. She also is resigning as a committee member for the Friends of Broadway. Ms. Michaels expressed regret in having to resign from these positions, but time limits prevent her from continuing. This board will surely miss her and her valuable contributions and wishes her the best of luck.
